Student Affairs Administrators
in Higher Education

Solicitud de Membresía Individual Internacional

Área del América Latina y el Caribe (LAC)

Adquiriendo una Membresía Internacional Individual de NASPA

1) Primero, inicie sesión en www.naspa.org, y luego haga clic en "Join Now" cuando el sitio web termine de cargarse.

The screenshot shows the NASPA website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the NASPA logo and the text "Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education". Below the logo, the main heading reads "LEARN. ENGAGE. ADVANCE." followed by the tagline "The leading voice for the student affairs profession." and the statistics "15,000 members. 2,100 institutions. 50 states. 25 countries. 1 community." Two buttons, "LOG IN" and "JOIN NOW", are prominently displayed. A large green arrow points to the "JOIN NOW" button. Below the main content, there is a navigation menu with links for "ABOUT", "EVENTS & PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT", "RESEARCH & POLICY", "PUBLICATIONS", "CAREERS", "CONSTITUENT GROUPS", and "FOCUS AREAS". The footer section contains three featured articles: "Ensure you and your NASPA family are commemorated in our centennial photo mosaic", "For less than it would cost to register one person for #NASPA18, your team can participate in both live and on-demand sessions", and "Check out our new monthly policy update - free to all in the higher ed community".

2) A continuación, desplácese hacia abajo en la página y haga clic en "Professionals and Faculty".

Institutions
Institutional membership open to campuses across the world.

Corporations & Non-Profits
Corporate and Non-Profit members working in the field of higher education.

Professionals & Faculty
